As Susanna in The Marriage of Figaro with Vancouver Opera –

"The star of the evening was Caitlin Wood as Susanna, showing great comic flair and a flexible and attractive soubrette soprano, with a lower register that thrilled. The latter was most apparent in her moving rendition of 'Deh vieni, non tardar' in Act 4."

Harvey DeRoo, Vancouver Classical Music

Soprano Caitlin Wood grew up in St. Albert, Alberta where she quickly developed her love of music and performing. Caitlin graduated from Opera School at University of Toronto, receiving the 2013 Richard Bradshaw Graduate Fellowship in Opera. Roles for this vivacious soprano include Mabel (Pirates of Penzance), Nannetta (Falstaff), Marie (La fille du régiment), and Tiresias (Les mamelles de Tirésias).

At Banff in 2015, she sang Despina in “A Little too Cozy”, Against the Grain Theatre’s clever, updated version of Mozart’s Così fan Tutte. Caitlin was a member of the Yulanda M. Faris Young Artist Program with Vancouver Opera where she appeared as the gypsy Frasquita in Carmen, Johanna in Sweeney Todd, understudied Adele in Die Fledermaus, and performed Laurette in the Young Artists production of Le Docteur Miracle.

Recent highlights for Caitlin include the title role in Pacific Opera Victoria's touring production of Mary's Wedding, and Carmina Burana with Okanagan Symphony. In May 2016, Caitlin reprised her feisty Despina in Against the Grain's highly-anticipated Toronto production of “A Little Too Cozy”. Sharing her love of Broadway classics, Caitlin starred in “Kisses on Broadway” with tenor Adam Fisher at Westben Arts Festival.

Caitlin begins her busy 2016/7 season with role and company debuts as Giulietta in Voicebox: Opera in Concert's I Capuletti e i Montecchi, and Clorinda in Rossini's comic gem La Cenerentola with Edmonton Opera.

Caitlin is thrilled to star as Susanna in The Marriage of Figaro, in the inaugural season of Vancouver Opera Festival, under the baton of Leslie Dala.
