Quebec tenor Jacques-Olivier Chartier is known for his beautiful sound and elegant singing in a wide variety of vocal styles. A former member of the Atelier Lyrique de l'Opéra de Montréal, he has earned critical acclaim for the “poise and pathos” of his interpretive skills.

As a Winner of Tafelmusik Baroque Orchestra's inaugural Vocal Competition in 2016, Jacques-Olivier recently debuted with this prestigious ensemble as tenor soloist in Zelenka's Missa Omnium, under the baton of conductor Ivars Taurins.

Highlights of his busy 2016/17 season include Handel's Dixit Dominus and Mozart's Mass in C Minor with Kitchener's Grand Philharmonic Choir, “Quatre Cantates de Bach” with Bernard Labadie and Les Violons du Roy, Bach's Christmas Oratorio with I Musici de Montreal, St. Matthew Passion with Ottawa's Thirteen Strings Chamber Orchestra, and Mozart's Mass in C Minor with Orchestre Symphonique de L'Estuaire in Rimouski, Quebec.

Recent oratorio performances include Mozart's Requiem with Jacques Lacombe and Orchestre Symphonique de Trois-Rivières, Bach's B Minor Mass for Owen Sound's Sweetwater Festival under the direction of Kenneth Slowik and also for Ottawa Bach Choir with conductor Lisette Canton, and Christmas Oratorio for Montreal's Choeur Polyphonique with conductor Louis Lavigreur.

Career highlights for Mr. Chartier include a six-concert tour as the Evangelist in Bach's Christmas Oratorio with Orchestre Métropolitain under Yannick Nézet Séguin, and his Carnegie Hall debut in a Purcell program under Richard Egarr (The Academy of Ancient Music). Jacques-Olivier has been a guest artist with the Montreal Bach Festival, Orchestre de Laval, Montreal Symphony Orchestra, Seattle's Pacific Musicworks, Ottawa Chamber Music Festival as well as with New Brunswick's Lameque Baroque Festival.

In 2017, Jacques-Olivier joins the cast of Carmen as Remendado with Société d'art Lyrique du Royaume.

Recent appearances on the operatic stage include Nelligan by André Gagnon with Opéra de Québec, Aristée/Pluton in Offenbach's Orphée aux Enfers with Société d'art Lyrique du Royaume, Ferrando in Mozart's Così fan tutte with Orchestre de la Francophonie under Jean-Philippe Tremblay, and Zémire et Azor by André Grétry with Opéra de Montréal, as well as Don Ottavio in Don Giovanni under Jean-Francois Rivest.

Jacques-Olivier began his musical training at nine years of age at the Petits Chanteurs de la Maîtrise du Québec (Pueri Cantores) and received his Masters and Bachelor of Music from the Université de Montréal in both Opera and Early Music. Mr. Chartier continued his vocal studies with Andreas Scholl in the Advanced Studies program at the Musik Akademie der Stadt Basel, Switzerland and the Britten-Pears School of Music in Aldeburgh, England.
