

MARION NEWMAN

MEZZO-SOPRANO

BIOGRAPHY

As Rosina in The Barber of Seville with Opera Lyra Ottawa –

"Marion Newman's Rosina is charming, playful, and quite believable as a young starlet hemmed in by her keepers. Her sumptuous mezzo tone and impressive vocal agility takes the spotlight in 'Una voce poco fa'..."

Chrissy Steinbock, Apt. 613

As Da Ji on The Lesson of Da Ji Recording –

"In the title role, Marion Newman sings with rich, opulent tone and her delivery pulses with the multiple meanings of her duplicitous existence."

Joshua Rosenblum, Opera News

Kwagiulth and Stó:lō First Nations, English, Irish and Scottish mezzo-soprano Marion Newman's "beautiful voice has heft and power, but at the same time an innate sweetness" (Opera Canada) and she has been noted as "a show stealer" (BBC Music Magazine). In her Irish debut with Cork's Opera 2005 in the title role of Carmen, she was widely praised for her "superbly sinuous sexuality" and as a "very exciting new talent" by the Irish Examiner. She returned to Cork to appear as Rosina in Il Barbiere di Siviglia, and again performed this role, delighting the critics, with Opera Lyra Ottawa, at the National Arts Centre.

On the concert stage, Marion has performed with the best ensembles, symphonies and choirs across Canada. Her extensive repertoire includes Handel's Messiah, De Falla's El Amor Brujo, Rossini's Petite Messe Solennelle, and Mozart's Requiem. Marion has been featured five times as a soloist on CBC's National Aboriginal Achievement Awards, and opened the 2002 Royal Golden Jubilee Gala at Roy Thomson Hall, where she performed the National Anthem before Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. Upcoming appearances include world premieres of several works, operas and concerts that speak to Marion's First Nations identity. She is much sought after as an advisor for arts organizations wishing to take an active and continuing role in reconciliation.

Highlights in 2016/17 include Messiah with Regina Symphony Orchestra and with Okanagan Symphony Orchestra, a solo recital at Canadian Opera Company's Richard Bradshaw Amphitheatre, and "Thunderbird" with Ottawa's Thirteen Strings.

Marion's discography includes The Lesson of Da Ji, an opera by Canadian composer Alice Ping Yee Ho and librettist Marjorie Chan, with Marion in the title role, five discs with the Aradia Ensemble for Naxos and Sea Change, with Continuum Contemporary Music.
